

- reading a sentence at a time for fluency.

- Weekly Guided reading including:
 - discussing the text in groups
 - predicting what will happen next.
 - talking about the characters and setting.
 - looking at stories, poems and non-fiction.

All to include:
Choosing what to write and sharing ideas.

- reading your writing to others.
- using VCOP to make your writing better
- practising handwriting to make your writing neater.

- books
- Character studies – find evidence in book
 - Visit to Wallingford library – locate JDs books
 - Settings (The Magic Paintbrush)

Design & Technology

- Design/ make scarecrows (Scarecrow)
-

Mathematics

Number work

- Daily counting, reading and writing numbers to 30 then beyond.
- Finding one more and one less then ten more and ten less.
- Looking for patterns in numbers.
- Adding and subtracting using different methods
- Recording maths work.

Shape, Space and measures

- Measuring length and heights. Using standard and non-standard measures.

Some topic activities will include:

- Measuring activities (Smartest Giant in Town)
-

Julia Donaldson

Science

- Use of materials (Smartest Giant in Town)
- Animal characteristics/ How adults and babies differ/ are similar/ making comparisons. (Monkey Puzzle)
- Seasons: Looking forward to Summer- Is it always hot?

History

- The life of Julia Donaldson- Biography
- What inspired her to become an author?

Physical Education

- Athletics- Multi- Skills

